

THE

The Cor Deo School Board of Directors oversees the continuing operation of this ministry and oversees the corporation's business affairs. The responsibilities of the Board of Directors shall include, but not be limited to, regularly and clearly articulating and leading the mission and vision of CDS as stated in Articles I and II of the Bylaws, making policy to effectively ensure the mission and vision are being carried out, overseeing the Head of School's leadership of the school, overseeing the Head of School's fiscal responsibilities of the school, and praying for the ministry of the school.

Board members are volunteers, represent a mix of parents of students and community members, and bring to the board a wide array of professional experience and personal perspectives. It is the Board's constant prayer that their decisions would be wise, unified, and led by the Holy Spirit.

Qualifications

Candidates for Board positions must subscribe without reservation to Articles I and II of the Bylaws and the Staff Code of Conduct Policy, and shall possess (or be committed to developing) an understanding of the Classical Christian Education model such that they can well direct and mentor the organization. Further, a Board Member must regularly attend and serve at a local church aligned with CDS' statement of faith. Staff members and their spouses are excluded from fixed term Board seats.

Whenever possible, the Board shall be comprised of a good diversity of representation, including gender, ethnic background, and skill sets/expertise such that it represents varying viewpoints. The Board shall seek to strengthen its collective competence and effectiveness by considering skills sets/expertise in legal training, financial management, business management, education, community service, ministry, and medicine.

Election and Tenure

New Board Members may be nominated by two or more sitting Board Members. Any two sitting Board Members may remove a nominee from consideration. Election will be by a majority of the sitting Board.

Board members shall serve three-year terms and be limited to two consecutive terms. After serving two consecutive terms, rotating Board members may be nominated for additional service after a minimum break in service of two years. No greater than 50% of the members shall be a current parent, legal guardian, grandparent or any other relative of a student enrolled at CDS at the time of their service on the Board.

Time Commitment

Board members must commit to a minimum of 2 meetings per month (one Board meeting (set schedule each year) and one Board working meeting). A Board member will also serve as a Board representative for at least one Committee of the Board and attend 1-2 Committee meetings per month. Additional time throughout the month may be necessary. Board members will also subscribe and participate in Classical U courses (<https://www.classicalu.com/>) throughout the Board term.

Interested in being nominated for service as a Cor Deo School Board member? We are accepting nominations for both “community” and “relative” Board members at this time. Please email your letter of interest and resume to schoolboard@thecordeoschool.org.
